Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson are spending the week at Dawson.
Mr. M. V. Owen and daughter, Miss Lizzie, went to Cerulean Thursday to spend a week.
Col. J. O. Cooper and daughter, Mrs. J. J. Chappell, of Cadiz, are spending the week at Dawson.
Misses Bessie Bulware and Genevieve Anderson, after a pleasant visit to Princeton, are again at home.
Rev. J. O. Rust and Prof. J. W. Rust are attending the Little River Association at Princeton this week.
Lieut. Wm. V. Brough left yesterday for Pittsburgh, where he is at present, his leave of absence having expired.
Mrs. Ermaack and daughter, of Versailles, Ky., have returned home after a visit of several days to Mrs. S. G. Buckner.
Mrs. Dr. R. E. Christian has returned home after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. George Major, in the Beverly neighborhood.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore and children, of Owensboro, arrived Monday evening on a visit to the family of Mr. J. C. Woodbridge.
Frasier Owen, Jr., night operator at the depot, on account of serious sickness was compelled to give up his post of duty and go home.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Rev. John O. Rust.
The Clarksville Chronicle gave a column account of Rev. John O. Rust's visit to that city Sunday. From the article we make the following extracts:
"Rev. John O. Rust, of Hopkinsville, according to announcement exchanged pulpits with Dr. Sears yesterday. The fame of this brilliant, young pulpit orator, who was ordained to the ministry only a few months ago, had preceded him, and moreover, the many friends of the young man's father, Prof. J. W. Rust, turned out in deference to him, to hear his boy preach, and notwithstanding distinguished ministers occupied other pulpits in the city, Mr. Rust had a splendid audience during the morning service. * * * Nearly every church in the city was represented in the congregation, and it did not need the prestige of his father's reputation to bring out an audience for the evening service. The audience was enthused, and every one went away with the praise of the young preacher on his lips. * * * John O. Rust is the coming preacher of the Baptist denomination and the Hopkinsville church will soon find some trouble in holding him. He is destined to stir the hearts of the multitude. * * * Mr. Rust profited no little by his newspaper experience which enables him to use so much brevity in a strong sermon."

A Rapid Growth.
The growth of the order of Knights of Pythias in Kentucky during the last decade has been marvelous, and especially in this section of the State. Several new Lodges have been organized during the past year. Accessions to Evergreen Lodge, of this place, are regular and the Lodge is now in fine working order and always stands ready to assist in the organization of other Lodges. Last Monday Messrs. H. H. Abernathy, J. K. Gant, A. D. Rodgers, C. E. Kennedy, Gideon Gooch, Bob Woodruff, W. M. Girard, Manuel Hatfield, G. M. Bell, Max Mendel, O. G. Lander and O. S. Stevens went up to Trenton to assist in the organization of a new Lodge at that place. There were delegations from Clarksville and Springfield, Tenn., and Russellville and Adairville. About fifteen members were initiated and officers installed, the proceedings occupying the entire night. The new Lodge was named "Hope Lodge, No. 53." At midnight the workers sat down to an elegant repast. The visitors report that they had a royal time.

Accident to Judge Winfree.
While feeding his horse Monday night, Judge W. P. Winfree stepped upon a trap door or loose plank in the stable loft, and fell violently to the ground, breaking his left collar bone. He was unable to get up, but members of his family were attracted by his groans and he was taken into his house in a very short while and Dr. Hickman summoned, who set the broken bone and dressed the wound. The injury is a very painful one but is not of a serious character and Judge Winfree will probably be able to attend to business in a few days more. In his absence his partner, Mr. Walter Kelly, will attend to his office business.

Bob Cooley Killed.
Robt. M. Cooley, formerly of this city, was shot and killed in Henderson last Saturday. John Duncan's house was broken into and robbed and a posse was sent to arrest Cooley on suspicion. Finding himself hemmed in, Cooley attempted to break through the lines of the officers and escape, when Geo. Duncan fired upon him and killed him instantly. Duncan was one of the posse, and a son of the man whose house had been robbed.

Mr. R. L. Boulware, with the firm of Bassett & Co., has been confined to his room since Sunday.

HERE AND THERE.

Alex. Gilliland has received a new stock of dry goods of all kinds.

People who have ridden upon the Flying Jenny pronounce it the most enjoyable amusement of the season.
The rates on our new dwelling house policy are no higher than on any other. Long, Winfree & Kelly.
N. B. Shyer is putting down a new pavement, extending from his store to the property of Dr. Gish, on Ninth street.

The Clarksville Tobacco Leaf says that William Dinsmore, of this place, has taken a job in the foundry at Clarksville.
Every owner of a dwelling should have our new dwelling house policy if insurance is wanted. Long, Winfree & Kelly.
We offer the shortest, plainest and most simple dwelling house policy ever issued in this section. Long, Winfree & Kelly.
L. L. Buckner has two fine harness horses for sale cheap that can trot in three minutes or better. Also several good gentle ponies.
Call and examine our common sense dwelling house policy before insuring your property elsewhere. Long, Winfree & Kelly.

The soldier boys are expected back from Grayson to-morrow night. None of them have been sick and all have had a splendid time.
Max Meyer, the Sixth street grocer, was before the city court Wednesday on the charge of violating the Sunday law. He was acquitted.
The doctors say that "horseback riding is the healthiest exercise known." The Flying Jenny horses are perfectly safe and never run away.

Chas. Morris, from Hopkinsville, has opened up a confectionery and fruit stand in the house lately occupied by A. R. Jones—Madisonville Item.
Mr. James R. Wood, who has been very ill, is improving. Mrs. Hunter Wood, who was with her during her most serious illness, returned home last Wednesday.
The proprietors of the flying Jenny expect to leave here about the 23rd inst. They will take their machine to Carmi, Ill., where they will remain until after the fair.

Local Association met in Princeton Wednesday. Rev. A. W. Meacham, of this county, was Moderator. Several Baptists from this county went down to attend the meeting.
Mrs. Knight, of North Christian, has brought suit for $3,000 against Beth Myers, Jr., for assault. Myers denies every allegation filed in the suit and will defend himself in court to the last.

One of a number of beef cattle that were being driven through Ninth street, when nearly opposite Shyer's store fell down and died last Wednesday forenoon. Cause supposed to be heat.
Messrs. John H. Green and R. H. Wilson are operating a hay press in the county this season. They have already 300 or 400 tons to press and make for different parties and others make applications every day.
Though there has been more rain in this section than for many summers past, a gentleman from the Montgomery neighborhood told us last Wednesday that up to the rain of last Friday the farmers had been suffering from dry weather.

There will be a trotting race between Bachelor, Cleveland and Mollie Mc, also gentleman's roadster ring. Dr. E. A. Anderson's fast pacer will give an exhibition treat at the Park this afternoon. Ladies are invited to attend. No charge for ladies.
Chief Campbell has received two anonymous communications. Whilst he does not care anything for them, he says that if the writers will call on him at his office and confer with him he may be able to give them some information that will keep them out of trouble.

In the arbor in the rear of Hopper Bros' store may be seen a large number of vines, such as the Virginia creeper, the moonflower—which unfolds like an umbrella just after dark—the climatic, yellow and potato pumpkins, an ivy, morning glory, five different kinds of gourd and grape vines.
"Mr. James R. Wood yesterday retired from the revenue office and will probably return to Hopkinsville. There has never been a more hardworking, conscientious official in the collector's office than Jim Wood and he goes out with the friendship and good will of everybody. Mr. G. W. Crutcher takes his place Monday morning as stamp clerk."—Owensboro Messenger.

Messrs. Young E. Allison and A. G. Almond wrote to Mr. E. B. Bassett, President of the Hopkinsville Commercial Club, that they would arrive in this city yesterday evening, and a meeting was called for last night by Mr. Bassett to confer with the gentlemen. They have been sent out by the State League to visit the clubs of the State on matters of importance. What was done last night will be bulletined this morning.

A BALLOON BURSTS.

The Aeronaut a Brother-in-Law of Mrs. C. T. Mason.
The following account of a fatal balloon ascension is taken from a Charlotte, N. C., paper. The ascension was made on the 9th inst. Last Wednesday Mr. C. T. Mason, whose wife is a sister of Mrs. Perry, received a telegram saying that her husband could not live longer than yesterday.
There was an exciting scene at Mount Holly fair grounds this afternoon. Professor W. K. Perry, the celebrated aeronaut of the American Balloon company, was to make his marvelous leap to the earth after ascending to a height of three-quarters of a mile, descending by the aid of a parachute.

At five o'clock, everything being in readiness, the dazzling feat was attempted in the presence of fifteen hundred people. The crowd watched the man climb into the air with bated breath.
When the balloon had traveled upwards about seven hundred feet the crowd discovered that it was bursting, gas could be seen shooting out, and soon the canvas cloth

REMAN TO DROP.
As Professor Perry was holding on under the parachute he was not aware of his terrible situation. The crowd became frantic with excitement. Yells went up and pistols were fired to attract the man's attention, but all of no avail.
Soon, however, all the gas and air in the balloon were exhausted, and twirling, jerking and whirling it began to fall downward. It was too late to loosen the parachute from the wrecked balloon, but for some distance it was successfully engineered. The balloon causing the parachute to capsize, all came down with a

TERMINABLE CRASH TO THE EARTH.
The crowd rushed around to the unfortunate man, and every attention was given him, but for twenty minutes he did not move or show signs of life.
The fall is variously estimated at from one to four hundred feet. Professor Perry was brought here to-night and is being treated by the best medical skill in the city. Many of his bones are broken, but physicians think it is possible for him to recover.

The Teachers' Institute.
The five days meeting of the teachers of public schools of the county, which convened last Monday, closes to-day with a very interesting program. This is the second annual meeting held under the new law, and has been better attended and more interest manifested than that of last year, or any previous meeting under the old law. There are 90 districts in the county and 85 teachers were in attendance last Wednesday. It is probable that there will be 96 to-day. The meetings were held under the direction of County School Superintendent Headman, who appointed Prof. C. H. Dietrich to conduct them. All the teachers—whose names were published in our issue of last Tuesday—have been greatly benefited by their attendance, and it has been by far the most successful Institute yet held. Following is the program for to-day:

9:00. Opening exercises and roll call.
9:15 a. m. Primary Arithmetic, E. F. Coyner, Mrs. Rosa Bramham, Miss Jennie West.
10:30 a. m. Advanced Arithmetic, C. H. Pittman, E. F. Coyner, H. L. Hoit.
12. Noon recess.
1:30. Oratory and Education, John L. Winn.
2:30 p. m. Physiology and Hygiene, S. L. Froge.
Lecture by Dr. James A. Young.
3:30 p. m. Recess.
4:45 p. m. Miscellaneous Business. Adjournment.
Kentucky State S. S. Assembly.
The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Sunday School Assembly, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will be held at Millwood, Grayson county, Ky., on the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R., Aug. 27th, 28th and 29th. Reduced rates have been secured and homes will be provided for all delegates who send their names to Geo. A. Campbell, at Millwood. The program is unique, and the eminent workers from our own State and abroad, promise three days of rare entertainment. Let every school send a delegate and every delegate bring his Bible and Gospel Hymns.

Rev. C. C. Davis, 200 N. E. Church Street, No. 31 Fulton St., Atlanta, Ga.

Police Court Items.
Max Myer violating Sabbath and selling spoiled meat, acquitted on both charges.
John Chaney, concealed deadly weapons and assault. Held over to Circuit Court under $50, in default of which was place in jail.
John Dulin, Fayette McRea, Tom Torian, Wash Blakey, all colored, gaming. The first four were fined $10 and costs, the others were acquitted.

John M. Revels, drunk. Fined $5 and costs.

Wallonia Wrecks.

WALLONIA, KY., Aug. 14.—Corn is very fine, other crops are ordinary, but tobacco is nearly a failure. Wheat is selling slowly.
Great deal of sickness in the vicinity and some in town.
Hon. Mat Kinney, county superintendent, was in town this week on business.
Mr. Luther Haydon, of Paducah, was in town last Monday, accompanied by Judge Buchanan, of Shady Grove, Ky., both of whom are excellent men.
Mr. E. C. Brandon has returned from Paducah on account of bad health. He is President of the Pomeroy Medical Company.
George D. Fry, principal of the Wallonia Institute, is in Christian county on business.

Since there is a tie in the election for representative it has elicited a good deal of interest in both parties. Aug. 19th is the time designated for the final decision.

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.
Furnished by GUY & COMPANY.
Sales on the market for the week just closed amount to $2,770 Hogsheads with receipts for same period of 2,326 Hhds. Sales on our market since January last, amount to $67,111 Hhds. Sales of the crop of 1888, on our market up to this date $7,818 Hhds.
No special features of interest have developed on our market this week regarding dark tobacco. The tendency in prices for large is by no means flattering. The recent crop reports would certainly indicate likelihood of at least maintaining present prices on dark tobacco with some hope of early improvement. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco both old and new.

Trash $1.00 to 1.75.
Common to Medium Logs $2.00 to 3.00.
Dark Logs extra quality $3.00 to 4.50.
Common Leaf $4.00 to 5.00.
Medium to Good leaf $5.00 to 6.00.
Good leaf Extra length $5.50 to 7.50.
High Wrappery tobacco $7.50 to 12.75.

Believes There's Something in It.
First Drummer at Restaurant—
"Talk about the Brown-Sequard Elixir, there must be something in it."
Second Drummer—"Nonsense! The veriest nonsense. What's your reason?"
First Drummer—"If you have a piece of this chicken how can you fail to believe that some M. D. has been experimenting on it with success."

To Dispel Colds,
Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.
Speaking of the sermon preached at Clarksville last Sunday, by our young divine, John O. Rust, the Tobacco Leaf says: "His morning discourse was especially noteworthy, by reason of its simplicity and power. It was a practical sermon, full of truths, concisely and logically adumbrated. It stamped him as a young minister of great power. Clarksville hopes to hear Mr. Rust often in the future. Many have been the favorable comments which his visit has elicited."

The Progress says: Rev. John O. Rust, of Hopkinsville, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church here both in the morning and evening. Rev. Rust, an ex-journalist of prominence, is one of the brightest and most eloquent ministers that the Baptists have, and is a young man destined to accomplish much good in his calling. His sermons here were simply as his sermons always are, eloquent, logical and clear, and the church at this place was much pleased with the handsome young minister."

In our issue of last week in giving the proceedings in the police court, Mr. Van Martin, who has been living in the city for seven years, was published as having been before the court on the charge of being drunk. Mr. Martin assures us that he has not been tried, for any offense and says most emphatically that he was not drunk and can prove the falsity of the charge by at least half a dozen reliable witnesses. We always take pleasure in correcting anything that may have been incorrectly reported in our columns.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is cleanly, agreeable, beneficial, and safe. It is the most elegant and the most economical of toilet preparations. By its use ladies can produce an abundant growth of hair, causing it to become natural in color, lustre, and texture.

Next Monday afternoon, at one o'clock, is the time set for the meeting at the L. B. Mearns place to talk over and arrange for establishment of a creamery. Farmers and everybody else are invited.

While workmen at Gardiner, Mo., were excavating for the foundation of a new building they came upon a liquor-seller's outfit of peculiar design. It was a large liquor cask buried six feet under ground outside of the foundation wall of the building, the top to it being arranged on the siphon plan, the end of it provided with a faucet. This was concealed by a convenient brick carefully replaced after each drawing of the ardent and cemented in position. Above this opening a second tube connecting with the cask passed through the wall, and it was through this the stuff was poured when the indicator ran low. The officers searched in vain years ago to discover that particular rum-shop.

TWO NEW COLORS.

One of Them is a Black Made from Camphor and Sulphuric Acid.
Two new colors are described in various recent technical journals. The first is apparently a reproduction of a color known to the ancients, and made by them with sand and lime, heated with roasted copper. The pigment, on analysis, appears to be a compound silicate of lime and copper. It is now made with exact proportions of the materials, so that the product is uniform, and the process seems likely to furnish us with a material of great value. The color is a bright, greenish blue, so that it will be more available for decoration than French blue or cobalt blue, both of which are of a purplish cast, and do not mix well with other colors, while it appears to be as permanent as either of them. The other color is a black, which has been made by treating camphor with sulphuric acid. By steeping camphor in strong sulphuric acid a jelly-like mass is formed, of a reddish color. When this is heated, it boils, giving off fumes of sulphurous acid, and turns intensely black. By evaporation the unconverted excess of acid and camphor is driven off, and a black mass remains, which seems to have the qualities of Indian ink. Like Indian ink, it can be apparently dissolved in water, and remains suspended for a long time. We hope that some one will pursue the subject of this camphor-black. A pure liquid black is one of things that science has searched for in vain for many years, and even so near an approach to it as good Indian ink would be a most useful substance.—American Architect.
